HAVAS

Lisbon, 13th—The police received notice yesterday of an imminent attack on the prisons to liberate the convicts. The guards were doubled, but nothing happened. The city is quiet.

Paris, 13th—The French Sub-Marine Cable Company has finished laying the cable between Guadeloupe and Martinique. The Company is authorized to extend the cable to Guiana.

GALVESTON.

Paris, 12th.—Russian refugees in this city have received cyphered letters dated Kala, Siberia, December 26th. According to these letters it appears that Madame Schida, of noble family, and school mistress in a college in Moscow, was sentenced to imprisonment, owing to some revolutionary documents having been found in her possession, and subsequently committed suicide. It appears that this lady, who was of great beauty, had been grossly insulted by the Governor of the prison, who had her stripped and flogged in the presence of the men in the prison. The unfortunate lady, fearing a repetition of these humiliating outrages and sufferings, took poison and died. The letters add that other ladies, fearing similar outrages, also committed suicide, and that all the male prisoners revolted. The troops were then called in and a horrible slaughter of the unfortunate prisoners ensued. The prisoners had been previously tortured and flogged.

Berlin, 11th.—Emperor William has issued orders forbidding the exhibition of his or his family's portraits without his permission.

Lisbon, 11th.—Government has issued a proclamation prohibiting patriotic meetings in the Coliseum or patriotic processions in the streets of Lisbon.

Lisbon, 12th—In spite of the proclamation numerous groups invaded the streets and had to be dispersed by the military, who prevented further disturbances by parading the streets. Several newspapers have been suppressed for publishing violent articles.

The Republicans were not allowed to place wreaths on the statue of Camoens.

Sofia, 12—Major Panitza and other officers accused of conspiracy against the life of Prince Ferdinand, have been expelled from the army, and the case has been placed in the hands of the civil authorities.

London, 12th—The Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs stated in the House that the documents on the Anglo-Portuguese difficulty would soon be submitted, and that these would remove the distrust caused by Portuguese popular feelings against Great Britain in spite of the existing cordiality of relations. The Portuguese Government had proposed arbitration to settle the difficulty, but England could not accept that idea.

Paris, 12th—The Duke of Orleans appeared again to-day before the Seine Tribunal: he was proved guilty of violating the Expulsion Law, and was sentenced to two years' imprisonment. Before the sentence was uttered, the Duke said in his defence: "I came to France to serve as common soldier, and I have nothing to do with political matters which concern my father, to whom I am an obedient and faithful son. I knew when entering France that I was overstepping the law, but that did not deter me, for I love my country and I wish to serve her. I am guilty of no crime."

A thousand people invaded the lawyers' hall. Several monarchists cheered the Duke; others hissed him and cheered the Republic. The gendarmes were unable to maintain order. The monarchists shouted "To the Statue." "Let us crown Henri IV." They left in a body and in front of the statue they cheered "Vive le Roi," while counter-cheers echoed "Vive la Republique."

Twenty-five people were arrested.

Madrid, 12th.—The Minister of Commerce presented to the Deputies the Puerto Rico Budget and bill authorising loan of eight million dollars to convert debt. The Government is determined to bring before the Spanish Courts of Justice the parties charged with embezzlement of fiscal revenue in Cuba and who have escaped to America.

WEST COAST TELEGRAMS

Valparaiso, 12—Telegrams from Santiago report the outbreak of influenza.

Lima 12—Don Guillermo Leona has been named Minister to Brazil with Mr. Henry Cevallos Cisneros as Secretary.

Serious disturbances continue in Huanta.

A newspaper, the Constitucional, will appear shortly to support the candidature of Rosas. The Pierolistas are gaining ground.

The Cabinet resigned yesterday and was recast this morning as follows:—Foreign Affairs and Premier, Manuel Irigoyen; Home Col. Guillermo Ferreiras; Justice Dr. Jose Galindo; War Col. Secada; Finance E. Delgado.

Valparaiso, 13th—The papers announce the appearance of influenza in a benign form.

Kosmos steamer Sakkarah was wrecked on her way from Guatemala to Europe; no lives lost, but valuable cargo of coffee went to the bottom. No details as to place or cause of disaster.

Protocol between bondholders, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Peruvian plenipotentiary was ratified to-day

MONTEVIDEO

13th Feb.

Representatives elected Alberto Capurro President of the Chamber. They also formed their permanent committees for the year.

Bolsa is very busy again.

Politics very quiet.

(From the Interior.)

Parana 13th—Wheat is fetching 8.40 to 9 dollars per 15 arrobes. All the flour mills are at work. Flour is not much in demand, however, and prices are falling.

Tucuman, 13th—The local Government have issued a decree authorizing the mortgage bank to reduce its capital to two millions (2,000 shares). The bank is to begin operations with a paid up capital of $200,000. The authorized capital was originally 3 millions.

Bread and meat are very dear here owing to speculation of the butchers and bakers

The recent rains have covered the province with verdure. The young sugar-cane is well developed.

The barometer is falling.

BANK DIVIDENDS.

The record of banking dividends in England for 1889 confirms by comparison the reputation of the Plate as one of the most profitable banking fields in the world. The dividends for the second half of last year of the leading banking companies in England are pronounced satisfactory by the London press. Looking at the metropolitan banks we see:

	Rate p. Cent. per Annum. 1889.		1888.
Alliance	7	.....	7
Central of London	10	.....	10
City	11	.....	10

Imperial	7	.....	7
London & Westminsier	16	.....	16
Lond. Joint-Stock	12½	.....	12½
Union of London	12½	.....	12½

It will be seen from this that the City Bank pays at the rate of 1 per cent more than at the corresponding date last year, while the other banks pay the same rates. The National Discount Company pays 12 per cent., and the Union Discount Company 9 per cent, being in each case the same as a year ago. The dividends announced by some of the principal provincial banks compare as follows with that declared at this time last year:—

	Rate per Cent. 1889.		Per Annum. 1888.

The Liverpool Union pays at the rate of 2½ per cent. per annum less than a year ago, but the London and Provincial and the London and Yorkshire each pay 1 per cent. more, the National of Wales 2 per cent. more, the North-Eastern ½ per cent. more, the North-Western of Liverpool 1 per cent. more, and the South Wales Union 1 per cent. more also.

The results of the working of the Banco de Italia y Rio de la Plata; of the London and River Plate Bank; and of the English Bank of the River Plate can compare most favorably with the above. The managers of our state banks might study these figures and made their own deductions.

SHIPBUILDING RETURNS.

The returns compiled by Lloyd's Register of Shipping show that there were 521 merchant vessels of 872,957 tons gross under construction in the United Kingdom at the close of the quarter ended 31st Dec., 1889. The particulars of the vessels in question are as follows, similar details being given for the corresponding period in 1888 for the purpose of comparison:—

Description.	31st Dec. 1889. No.	Gross Tonnage.	31st Dec. 1888. No.	Gross Tonnage.
Steam.
Steel	384	753,209	312	694,386

Total...	83	88,427	81	81,670
Total steam and sail...	521	872,957	445	811,468

From the above statement it will be observed that the merchant tonnage under construction in the United Kingdom at the end of 1889 was about 8 per cent greater than the tonnage under construction at the end of 1888. During the past year, however, the amount of work in hand increased until the end of the second quarter, when there were 536 vessels of 929,611 tons under construction, these being the highest figures reached since the period of unprecedented activity in 1881-3. Since June last the returns have shown a slight falling-off. The September returns showed 46,862 tons less than those for the previous quarter, and the present returns show 9792 tons less than those for September. On the other hand, an increase is noticeable this quarter in the vessels for the construction of which preparations are being made, there being now 171 vessels of 304,275 tons "preparing" against 125 vessels of 242,800 tons at the close of the previous quarter. Of the vessels under construction in the United Kingdom at the end of December, 434 vessels of 769,453 tons, or approaching 90 per cent, were being built under the supervision of the Surveyors of Lloyd's Register, with a view to classification by that society. It may be noted here that during the year 1889 there have been launched in the United Kingdom, 595 steamers of 1,083,793 tons and 95 sailing vessels of 125,568 tons, or a total of 690 vessels of 1,209,361 tons. The following table apportions the vessels now under construction in the United Kingdom to the countries for which they are being built:—

THE BOLSA REPORT.

The steady growth of operations can be seen at a glance in the numerous tabular statements that accompany this report. The activity in transactions has been growing with the increase in the number of members: the former averaged eight millions per diem on an approximative capital of one thousand millions, say the capital of all the companies whose shares are quoted.

The establishment is in communication with all the foreign markets, and its authority is acknowledged by merchants who endeavour to settle difficulties under the arbitration of the Stock Exchange Committee.

With regard to the activity in the Bolsa offices, the importance of same may be seen in the tables of figures in this Report: they form a laborious resumen of the statements in detail of the daily transactions.

The new wing of the Bolsa building has been completed in a year, and the extension will meet the requirements of the association for some time to come.

The number of members has increased rapidly with the formation of the numerous new companies of late years. The following was the number of members at the end of each of the last four years:—

1887	3690
1888	4556
1889	5833

The number of stocks to which the Committee granted a quotation is also very large, surpassing the aggregate of previous years: thus, in 1886 there were only 3, in 1887 only 8, in 1888 seventeen and in 1889 thirty six. This shows the rise in the tide of speculation, carrying on its crest all kinds of new companies which according to the regulations of the Bolsa asked for a quotation that was granted accordingly.

In the respective tabular statements all the new companies, say 26 with a capital of 200 millions, are marked with an asterisk.

The initiative of the Bolsa Hospital has been slowly taking shape. The difficulties afflicting the market have not been favorable to the subscription that was mooted to meet the balance needed to carry out the philanthropic work.

The technical Committee have sent in their report and the plans have been approved.

Everything is ready for the work, but the Committee have put off the execution, waiting for a period when the price of materials is cheaper and allow the completion of the Hospital within the estimates drawn up when gold was at 60 o/o premium.

The Committee have appointed the President of the Republic to lay the foundation stone of the building. We must acknowledge the important services of Engineer Buschiazzo, who drew up the final plans, and of the Committee that studied and approved those plans.

A clearing-house, a necessary establishment for a market of the importance of Buenos Aires, which comprises such valuable and extensive operations, is one of the ideas to which the Committee have devoted much attention, with the hope of seeing this initiative successfully carried out. A clearing-house has become a necessity, daily more keenly felt, to economise time and facilitate business. The Stock-exchange Committee counts on the support of the bankers and leading merchants, and the establishment will soon be organized.

In the midst of the abnormal monetary disturbances during the year, and of the depreciation in the leading speculative stocks, obligations in general have been scrupulously met, and that speaks volumes in favor of the commercial honesty that presides over Bolsa operations.

On an aggregate of five hundred millions liquidated during the year, failures amounted to scarcely 1 o/o of that total, say $3,026,044. Out of the 35 failures that represent that amount, 15 were amicably arranged with the creditors, reducing the loss to $2,340,000; thus 22 o/o of the amount of the failures was paid.

Many of those who could not meet their obligations proved to satisfaction that the causes of their default did not affect their probity, and that they had no elements to meet their shortage. Those who failed to prove their good faith were dealt with inexorably, and justice was done in the expulsion of 17 members.

These figures confirm the high standing of probity of the speculation which had to make supreme efforts to cover the heavy deficits produced by the great depreciation in stocks, the axis of Bolsa activity; this scrupulous payment of obligations has saved the commercial body connected with the Bolsa movement from losses; thus we see how commerce outside the Bolsa has gone through the crisis without any failures.

The provincial Cedulas, National Bank shares, Catalinas shares, Banco Constructor shares, the most active stocks in the market, have suffered such great and rapid fall in value that in other markets a krach would have ensued and a general bankruptcy; yet the Bolsa has survived difficult settlements wherein all joined to save credit and fair reputation, thus reducing the losses to the insignificant amount we mentioned above.

At foot we give a table with all the above figures.

LONDON LETTER.

THE WEEK'S POLITICS

(From our own Correspondent).

Jan. 10th, 1890.

The European family of nations is in mourning for the Empress Augusta and sorely troubled on account of the dangerous illness of the infant King of Spain. He has been suffering some days from a slight gastric fever which within the last forty eight hours was followed by cardiac collapse, and at 11.30 p. m. yesterday his condition was considered hopeless. To-night there was even a rumour that he was dead, but it is not confirmed.

The quarrel between Great Britain and Portugal or between the Scotch missionaries in Nyassaland and the Portuguese authorities in Mozambique still gives uneasiness although the newspapers report a probable settlement. The text of Senhor Barros Gomez's reply to Lord Salisbury's note presented by Mr Petre the English Minister in Lisbon, on Monday last, has not been published, but we are given to understand that the Portuguese Government agrees to the English demands for suspending all further action on the Shire river and in Nyassaland and withdrawing such armed forces, if any, as may remain in the debatable territory. In the event of the negociations which are now being pressed to an issue not leading to a settlement of the matter, Portugal appeals to the good offices of the Great Powers, as England shows no disposition to accept arbitration.

That much is telegraphed to-night from Lisbon, where a better feeling is said to prevail. It is useless and indeed impossible to say more, as we are all completely in the dark and in the hands of Lord Salisbury and the trading association most interested in the dispute. As for Portugal agreeing to the English demands just quoted, that agreement amounts to nothing, since Major Serpa Pinto long ago withdrew himself and his troops from the debatable land. The question in dispute is one of boundary; and from the fragments published of Senhor Barros Gomez's reply it seems as if he were desirous of postponing the real issue. Meanwhile the British fleet is assembling at Gibraltar, or on the Mediterranean coast, and a rather formidable squadron under Admiral Freemantle is gathering at Zanzibar. At Quillimane the Portuguese authorities have detained the British letters and despatches from Nyassaland and have no doubt read them. The government at Lisbon is therefore well informed as to what is going on in those regions, whilst the British premier, who is also foreign minister, is dependent upon such information as may be vouchsafed to him by the Secretary of the new Trading Association. Of Mr. Johnston, our Consul at Mozambique, we absolutely know nothing and shall know nothing until a British dispatch boat, now on the way from Quillimane, arrives at Zanzibar. In regard to the despatches, the British gunboat took them at the mouth of the Zambese contrary to the orders of the Portuguese authorities. The British commander followed the precedent set by Commander Johnson at Tamatave, when the French Admiral insisted upon the British despatches going in the usual way through the post-office. I see that the Debats observes that though not anticipating that the difficulty with England will compel Portugal to mobilise her land forces, the Lisbon Government could, if necessary, bring into the field one hundred and twenty thousand men with two hundred and forty-two guns, strongly organised and disciplined.

Lord Salisbury is still confined to his room, but we hope soon to see him issue from his Hatfield home, in company with Lord Balfour of Burleigh, clad in ruff and doublet and with halberd and breastplate, ready to do battle for his sovereign, his church, the African Trade Association and the Scotch missionaries. As for us English, we really know nothing about it. We are more interested in the work of another "gallego," Mr. Goschen, who may have a surplus of four millions, and the Times has been hired to say that the Tories, whose one thought is the interests of the working classes, propose to apply the surplus of 1891 to free education with a bonus to the middle classes of 1d off the income tax, to which is added another boon, the abolition of the duties on silver plate. The surplus of this year is to be applied to the reduction of the national debt.

The Times goes carefully into figures and is obviously employed by the Government as a pilot balloon. From what we can judge already of public opinion, we find that free education is unpalatable to the Tories, but as Scotland has voted for it herself we are bound to follow, and the next best thing is to make something out of the concession. This "something" is fully understood by the Radicals, who know that at present out of the Government grants (independently of rates) only £160,000 go to board schools, whilst £846,000 go to church schools, and £344,000 go to other denominational schools. "I can understand a Catholic", says a writer in the Revue des Deux Mondes, "and I can understand an artist, but a Dissenter is unrecognizable." Had the writer lived in England he would know better. Mr. Hughes—Price Hughes and his fellow-dissenters have already sounded the alarm, and the Radicals, Socialists and ne'er-do-weels have caught up the cry and vow that rather than be hoodwinked by a sham free education grant meaning a fresh subsidy to the inoculcation of political superstitions through parsondom, they will leave things as they are until a Government comes in that will make short work of denominations. I know nothing about dissenters, but the Radicals are certainly right. You remember the other day that at a meeting of the Duke of Westminster's tenantry one of the tenants, not very well satisfied with the Duke's evictions and tyrannical management of his estates, began to speak of him as "a man who ..," he was immediately stopped by the chairman—a parson—who refused, as he said, to hear His Grace the Duke of Westminster spoken of as "a man." The tenant very naturally asked if the Duke were a woman? The clerical party, having no precise information on that point, got in a temper, refused to put a resolution from the chair, and broke up the meeting. Now when it is a question of denominational grants, that is the sort of thing the Radicals dread, and very rightly; as for the particular religions outside the Anglican church, no one cares two straws whether they have grants or no. Those who wish well to the church of England, who even love it from early associations, have given it years and years ago the friendly advice that, if it elects to be a State church, it must stand or fall with the politics of the State. The wisest among its ministers know this and have counselled disestablishment. Who would believe that no less a person than the Tory Attorney-General only a day or two ago savagely attacked the superannuated bishops for clinging to their emoluments when useless in their diocesan duties. Sir Edward Clarke is surely a friend to the church! He sees the breakers ahead. So does Lord Salisbury. No one better. But his prejudices are so strong that rather than honestly put about and meet the waves to seaward, he will snigger on, taking all the risks of the shoals.

ARGENTINE RAILWAY GUARANTEES.

Many holders of Argentine railway securities carrying the guarantee of either the National or the Provincial Governments have recently experienced feelings of growing uneasiness at the the attitude adopted towards them by the fiscal authorities of the Argentine Republic. Everybody is aware that a long course of more or less reckless borrowing for all sorts of projects, a few of them good, but most of them bad or indifferent, has brought the country into such a critical financial condition, that the absolute cessation of the borrowing mania and the most rigorous retrenchment in every department of the State will alone suffice to avert an utter collapse. It is not surprising in these circumstances that holders of railway securities should have felt alarmed lest the guarantees which have been granted with a lavish hand to railway companies all over the Confederation should offer to the statesmen of Buenos Ayres a tempting opportunity of commencing their policy of economy in that direction. Still, the announcement of the suspension of the guarantee of the East Argentine Railway, and the further statement that the other companies enjoying the guarantee of the National Government were expected to place their lines on a proper working footing, to the satisfaction of the National Railway Board, by the first day of the current year, have come rather as a shock to those who have been relying upon the continuous payment of the guarantee. The decree, published at the end of November with regard to to the East Argentine Railway, states that the guarantee is suspended "until this line is placed in the conditions prescribed by law, both as regards rolling stock, the working expenses, and the method of keeping its accounts. The official inspector shall make effective his intervention in the affairs of the said company, appealing for the support of the police authorities. The National Railway Board shall examine the books of the company, to ascertain if the working expenses and system of book-keeping are what they should be and report on same to the Minister of Interior". And in the closing article of the decree, the following note of warning to all whom it may concern is struck: "The National Railway Board shall inform the other railways companies enjoying the nation's guarantee, that if they do not, within the term prescribed, comply with the prescriptions of the General Railway Law, as already intimated to them, and with what is prescribed in their contracts, the payment of their guarantee shall likewise be suspended." It is unmistakable from this that President Juarez does not intend to limit his interference to the East Argentine Railway, but that the whole working of the guarantee system is to be overhauled. People on this side have really no means of judging to what extent this action on the part of Government is justified. One the one hand, the Government may be using their power in the arbitrary and highhanded manner with which they are commonly charged by those who hold the guaranteed securities; on the other hand, the companies themselves may not be doing what they ought towards carrying out their share of the bargain between them and the Government. Very probably the strict equity of things would be found somewhere between the extreme contentions of the partizans on either side but as we have just said, that can only be determined when the report of the National Railway Board is considered side by side with whatever defence the companies have to offer.

Matters seem to have been brought to their present pass mainly owing to the ingathering of a harvest of exceptional abundance in the Argentine Confederation and the insufficiency of the facilities for moving the crops which many of the railway have furnished. The Buenos Ayres STANDARD, referring to the dead-lock at the end of November, says: "Up-country railway affairs are in a terrible mess. There is a general complaint of lack of rolling stock, delays and irregularities in service." And it goes on to explain that much of the congestion may be traced to the suspension of traffic on the Pacific Railway, owing to the damages caused by the floods some time ago. But there is no doubt that companies were at that time unprepared for any considerable increase in the traffic, and the lamentable results of the floods throwing most of the traffic into other channels, knocked all the managers off their legs. That the railways were unprepared to cope with the enormous volume of traffic offered to them appears to be beyond dispute, but whether the unpreparedness was of a culpable kind, or was in fact, the result of a combination of circumstances which the companies could not control, remains to be seen. What for the moment is of more interest to the general run of investors is to ascertain how far the position of the securities which they hold is likely to be affected by this somewhat sudden awakening of the Argentine Government. In this connection it has first to be noted that some of the lines are unconditionally guaranteed as to principal and interest, and are, in fact, State railways in the ordinary acceptation of the term; but as the securities of these railways are not dealt in here, we need not refer to them.

guarantees are of a somewhat varied character, so that it is necessary for investors to enquire carefully as to the standing of the different securities in that respect. Thus the only issue of the Great Western Company enjoying a National guarantee is the debenture stock. The North-Eastern Company's guarantee is for twenty years, and is calculated as being sufficient to cover the interest on both issues, working expenses being placed at 50 per cent of the gross receipts. The Buenos Ayres and Ensenada Port, as well as the Buenos and Rosario, the B. Ayres Great Southern, the B. Ayres Northern, the Central Argentine, the Cordoba Central, and the North-West Argentine, are dependent for dividends on their own earnings, having either started without guarantees or surrendered them. These several companies have been in recent years worked with very satisfactory results, for, besides paying in full the fixed charges and preference interest, they have, for the last complete year recorded, paid the following dividends on the ordinary capitals:—B. Ayres and Ensenada Port 8 o/o, B. Ayres and Rosario 9, B. Ayres Great Southern 10 o/o, B. Ayres Northern 7, Central Argentine 12, and Cordoba Central 7 o/o. The Buenos Ayres and Pacific Company's guarantee is of the same kind as that of the Argentine North-Eastern noted above. The Valpa raiso line has a similar guarantee except that the working expenses are taken as 55 per cent of the receipts. The East Argentine Company at first had an unconditional guarantee for 40 years amounting to £67,874, but owing to the continued unproductive working of the line the Government made the guarantee conditional on the permanent way and rolling stock being kept up to a certain state. For 1885, the so called guaranteed stock received 6½ o/o; for 1886, 8½ o/o, 1½ o/o being on account of arrears; 6½ o/o was paid for 1887, and at the rate of 7 o/o per annum for the second half of 1888.

We have already pointed out that it would be unjust to condemn the Government until the report of their inspector is published; and it would be equally unjust to suggest that the companies which are or may be affected by the decree may not have a sufficient answer to make to the charges of the Government officials. The Argentine Great Western, like the East Argentine, has been conspicuously unfortunate, for in the year ended June 30th last the revenue account exhibited a deficiency of £11,948, but most of the other lines have earned the greater part if not the whole of the amounts guaranteed to them. It is, therefore, quite possible that the action of the Government in suspending the guarantee of the East Argentine Company, and in warning the other lag-behinds to mend their paces, may have been induced by an honest attempt to promote the welfare of the community for whose benefit the railways were called into existence. In any case the utmost saving which the Government would make, even if they abolished the guarantees altogether, would be only a small amount. The total sum for which the Government is responsible in the way of interest upon the issues specified above, subject to the ratio of working expenses being under the fixed amount, is about £600,000 and as at least two-thirds of this amount is at present being earned, it will be seen that the absolute repudiation of the guarantees would scarcely effect a saving of £200,000. We are simply putting an extreme; though there is no evidence that a general repudiation is intended. For the moment the British market is closed to Argentine borrowings; but it will not always be closed in the ordinary course of things and Argentine statesmen, with their faults, are not likely to be so foolish as, by a wholesale repudiation now, to permanently shut up the purse-strings of British investors against them. The railway companies against whom the decree is launched would do well to set their houses in order, so that a rupture may be averted. Very probably there are faults on both sides. In that case a "modus vivendi" will easily be found if the Government officials and the railway managers make up their minds to look at the questions in dispute camly and dispassionately, and to deal with them upon a common-sense basis. And the fact that the Government has now decided to pay the East Argentine guarantee for the past half-year would seem to indicate that there is no disposition to go to extremes.

Railway Items.

Dr. Araoz has reported favorably on the altered plans of the railway from Belgrano to Las Conchas. We understand that the plans are altered merely in regard to certain stations.

Advices from La Plata yesterday state that the Southern Railway proposes altering the Sierra Chica branch and placing it nearer to Hinojo. At the same time the company propose a new junction at Ayacucho.

The plans of the proposed railway from San Blas to Patagones, which concession belongs to the Rio Negro Salt Company, are now finished and will be shortly submitted to Government for approval. The works will be begun immediately on the approval of the plans.

The Rosario papers yesterday brought details of the collision reported in our last issue, near Fives-Lille Station. The accident was caused by one train remaining on the main-line instead of entering a siding. The fireman on one of the engines jumped out and hurt himself severely. Three wagons were completely destroyed, and the passengers got off with a fright. The line was soon cleared.

Over 70 trains a day now pass through the Severn Tunnel—a striking confirmation of the prediction of the late Mr. Grierson that it would secure a vast amount of through traffic between the North of England and South Wales. The actual statistics of the tunnel traffic have not yet been prepared, but from the number of trains running the officials are enabled to form a fairly accurate estimate, and the extent of the increase will be at once apparent when it is stated that, so far as goods are concerned, the statistics to hand show that the traffic last year was about 33 per cent in excess of that of 1887—the first year the tunnel was opened—and about 20 per cent more than that of 1888. One result of this additional business is that there are four extra coal trains running between South Wales and London. As to the passenger traffic, some idea of the number of persons journeying through the tunnel may be obtained from the fact that 11 trains run each way between Bristol and Cardiff daily, the London and South Wales express passes through the tunnel and proceeds via Stapleton road, and there are four daily express trains each way between Bristol and the North.

The London papers appear to be much exercised in regard to the hostile attitude of the Government here to the railways. The Economist heads the list with a lengthy article to which we call the attention of our readers, and Hevapath's, amongst a crowd of others, launches into some speculation which concludes as follows:—"What the upshot will be it is hard to say. The Government can squeeze lines dependent on guarantee, and may do so, but every twist of the screw that way reacts on Argentine railway credit. We can understand a highly progressive community being anxious for the best railway accommodation possible, but allowance should be made for unavoidable and inherent shortcomings. Argentine railways are what circumstances made them. The traffic comes all at once after harvest time, and it is unreasonable to expect companies to provide sufficient stock to cope with such emergencies, when the surplus rolling stock would lie idle all the rest of the season. Floods break up the permanent way and block traffic. This has been the case lately on the Pacific line, and has caused much of the irritation felt by the Government inspectors. Surely it would be unreasonable to hold the Central Argentine and other lines responsible for accidents over which they possibly could have no control. So, too, with rolling stock and permanent way. It is pretty much a matter of capital; where there is a guarantee let a better guarantee be given. Where there is no guarantee we must assume that the Proprietors are not so blind to their own interests as not to give the best accommodation possible, as only by doing so could they reap the best possible return on the venture. These and other obvious considerations should inculcate caution and moderation on the Government inspectors. What with fluctuating premium and a state of commercial stability not yet beyond the possibility of a breakdown, the Argentine Government cannot expect capitalists here so far to discount the future as to build lines up to the standard in those countries. The remedy lies pretty much in their own hands, not by penal bullying, but by encouragement and fair treatment and an impartial desire to let the law of supply and demand have free exercise in this as in all other commercial branches of enterprise."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Bread was as tight as money yesterday. The bakers and their wheezy men passed the whole day long in talking and "tonteria", but came to no arrangement. Half the cooks in town have bread-making and baking now added to their daily toil, and fearful and wonderfully made bread it is!

To-morrow the list closes for applications for the British Hospital Loan of $60,000 which, as will be seen by reference to our advertisement columns, yields 7 per cent and is secured on a building of the institution. This is not a loan to cover current expenses, but to pay cost of additional buildings, now being erected, rendered necessary by increased demands. In our opinion it offers as good or better security than National Cedulas, which give the same interest and command a premium.

The Revd. Dr. James Smith, M. A., will preach at the Estanzuela, district of Colonia, B. O., at noon, next Sunday week.

The thermometer and gold premium still cling lovingly together. Both were in an upward mood yesterday, and the public rather down in the mouth in consequence.

People in general spoke less disrespectfully of the influenza yesterday. The doctors reported fewer cases, but an aggravation of the malady in those fresh cases reported. Although the epidemic makes people sneeze, it allows no one to sneeze at it; and the safest course is to flatter its vanity by going heroically to bed and sending for a doctor.

The Royal Mailer Tamar entered Montevideo yesterday, and her mails will be up this morning.

There was fun in Calle Independencia on Wednesday night when a grey-haired on Giovanni was hauled by an unromantic policeman while climbing up a rope ladder to enter a house. The old party looked extremely foolish as he was marched off.

The Galveston telegram which we publish this morning contains a tale of blood-curdling horror from that hell upon earth, Russian Siberia, that will shock the civilized world. No wonder there is Nihilism in Russia! The Czar will probably hang the demons who are guilty, to appease the outraged nations of the earth, as he did on a former somewhat similar occasion; but all the same, this fresh evidence of what despotic government leads to in Russia will only help to swell more rapidly the rising tide of republican opinion which is manifestly destined, before the century closes, to sweep every throne in Europe away for ever.

The proprietors of the new Alhambra, situated at 1242 Cerrito and which has been specially constructed for the purposes of a skating-rink, but which is also available for concerts, balls and other popular and social functions, was thrown open to the private inspection of the press of this city on Wednesday evening. The hall is very spacious and well ventilated and when used for the purposes of a concert, can comfortably seat fifteen hundred pers

Two bank managers are reported to be down with influenza.

Dn. Manuel Lainez, editor of the Diario, took leave of his friends to-day. He sails for Europe in the French mail steamer Bresil. We wish him a pleasant trip and hope to see him soon back.

A meeting of shareholders of the Catalinas Company will be held on the 26th instant, when the report for the year will be read. This prosperous company is now making its own railway track through the Boca "potreros" and into its own premises and docks at the Madero Port. This shows the great push of the directors, and we hear the company is also selling sites for almacenes to the almaceneros in front of the docks.

Gold took a sudden spurt at the second hour and astonished the whole market by bounding up for all dates, closing as stiff as a rock. The amounts sold were not large, but the tendency was nevertheless very stiff, the quotations leaving off at 220.80 for to-morrow and Saturday, 223 for end of month, 224 for end of March and 225 for end of April and May. In stocks, the usual meagre business was done.

The R.M.S. Tamar has arrived in Montevideo. Her mails and passengers come up to-night.

The s.s. Colonia arrived in Montevideo to-day from Havre with 400 immigrants and 800 metres cargo, including 2000 barreis sugar.

The Telegrafo Maritimo says that there are upwards of five thousand tons of cargo for Brazil awaiting shipment in Montevideo. There have been few steamers or even sailing vessels offering lately for Brazilian ports, which has caused this glut of cargo.

The steamship Kambyses, Kosmos line, leaves Hamburg on the 15th instant for Montevideo, Chilian ports, Guatemala and Central America.

Settlers in the far South and especially those in the wild apple country, the Campana Mahuida, in the Neuquen territory, will be glad to learn that a mining company are now about to start work there, dispatching a technical committee to study the locality and its resources, with a view to determining the exact capital required to work the mines. The latter are situated near the Rio Agrio. Samples taken from them have given seventy-five per cent. lead and up to nine kilos of silver per ton, and the promoters hope also to turn to profit the great wealth of timber in proximity to the river; the trees will be shaped into rafts to float the ore down to Patagones. In this way double profits can be made and the promoters are very hopeful of the results.

The captains of the Spanish barques in the port of Montevideo have entered into an undertaking not to buy any jerked beef over twenty-seven reals from Buenos Aires or twenty-eight reals from the Mount. This is for "habanera and bonita" quality and the step has been taken owing to unfavorable advices having been received from Cuba.

Bahia Blanca advices report great movement in shipping circles, though the sand banks cause no little delay and inconvenience. The port is full of sailing craft recently arrived with railway material, which is being discharged at the railway moles.

The steamship Bellanoch has loaded for Antwerp with 915,070 kilos of wool and 2100 cow hides. Mihanovich's steam tug is daily expected and badly wanted.

The German steamship Bremen left the same port also for Hamburg with 1305 bags of grained maize, 345 bags of flax, 244 bales of wool and 4020 bags of maize.

The ocean greyhound Nord America has arrived in Montevideo from Genoa with 1105 passengers for this port; a thousand are immigrants. She will be up to-morrow.

In the Santa Fé colonies, new wheat sales are now the order of the day. Mallmann and Co., it is said, have bought no less than one million bags.

Another colony has been started in Entre Rios on the Gallino property in Victoria, near the Corrales station of the Noloza and Victoria railway. The name of the colony is "Saboya."

The La Capital, capital four millions, has applied to Government for authority to recuce its capital to one million.

The Caja de Depositos y Credito is going to make its capital of five millions gold. The capital was originally five millions paper.

The Camara de Comercio of the Bolsa met yesterday and elected the following gentlemen to fill the principal posts :—

President, F. Souza Martinez; Vice-president, R. Tomé; honorary secretary, Luciano Chaves.

The Cereal Arbitration committee is composed of—

Messrs. Juan Lucio Somoza, Jorge Born, Juan Benvenuto, Guillermo Bertram, Emilio Saenz, Manuel Dungey, Luciano Moleres, Adam P. Mahu, Antonio M. Delfino, Eduardo Zimmermann, Adolfo Tewes and Amadeo Jolly.

The River Plate Times brings the following items :—

On Sunday, J. Maeso sold, on account of the National Company, 44 solares in calles Larrañaga, Goes and Reducto, fetching from $0.95 to $3.60 the sq. vara. Total product $41173.50.

282 bags wool entered yesterday. 6 to 8000 arr. sold in Feria at $4.46 to 4.50 fleece. Lambskins 3.10 to $3.20.

900 fanegas new wheat from San Jose Canelones were sold in F. C. C. N. Station yesterday at 4.50 and 4.70 the 110 kilos.

A Cerro Saladero has sold 250 pipes ox tallow at $11 5/8 reales arr. on board. Mauret and Co. have sold 2000 salted ox hides to be under salt till Feb. 28 at 6.20 dols. heavy on board.

The following mail steamers are posted to leave :—

On 14th, the Bresil, from this port for Rio and Lisbon.

On 14th, the Matteo Bruzzo, from this port for Las Palmas, Barcelona and Genoa.

On 15th, the Dresden, from this port for San Vicente, Vigo and Antwerp.

On 16th, the Britannia, from Montevideo for Rio, Bahia, Pernambuco and Lisbon.

On 18th, the Provence, from this port for Rio, Dakar, Marseilles and Genoa.

On 18th, the R.M.S. Tamar, from this port for Santos, Rio, Bahia, Pernambuco and Lisbon.

On 18th, the Rio Negro, from this port for Santa Cruz and Dunkerque.

On 18th, the Patagonia, from Montevideo for West Coast.

The balance-sheet of the Banco de Credito Real to February 1st has made its appearance, shewing that the board have already succeeded in amortizing 19,221 shares of 100 dols. each, which were burnt to-day in presence of Messrs. E. Armengaud, R. Peña and E. Estrada. The bank holds most valuable properties in this city, Santa-Fe, Entre-Rios, Cordoba and Montevideo, estimated to be worth nearly 5½ million dollars, whilst its cash balance amounts to 429,578 dollars. An important item is 3,835,939 dols. set down as "valores en cartera," which is too general to be analysed, but, with this exception, the balance-sheet shews the bank to be in an exceedingly flourishing state.
